Raspberry Pi sends environmental input to DB.

Application requests recent data in background.

User is notified of any necessary care tips for plant.